

How to Apply for Federal Student Financial Aid

Financial aid is available from the federal and state governments and your college. This includes Pell Grants, Work-Study, Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants, and Federal Student Loans.

Before You Apply

Get Your StudentAid.gov account.

- Dependent students require at least one parent to also have a StudentAid.gov Account (FSA ID) in order to complete and electronically sign the FAFSA and other federal student aid documents.
- Get it before you sit down to do the FAFSA.
- Visit studentaid.gov and click “Create Account.”

Check your eligibility

Go to studentaid.gov/aid-estimator to use the Federal Student Aid Estimator for an estimate of your federal aid eligibility.

Complete the FAFSA

- Go to studentaid.gov and navigate to the FAFSA® Form to start applying for FAFSA.
- To fill out the FAFSA, you and your contributor(s) must have all of the required materials to submit your application.
- The FAFSA form applies to a single academic year. That means you need to submit a new FAFSA form each year you’re applying for aid.

Apply for the New York State Tuition Assistance Program (TAP)

- If you’re a NYS resident and include a NY school on your FAFSA, you should also apply for NYS aid online by using the NYS resident link on the FAFSA Submission Confirmation page.
- You must apply for TAP and complete or renew the FAFSA every year.
- You can apply directly at www.tap.hesc.ny.gov/totw

Gather These Materials

- For both students and parents:
 - Drivers License.
 - Social Security Number.
 - Tax returns from two years prior to the FAFSA application year.
 - Records of other untaxed income, such as child support received, veterans’ benefits, or military allowances.
 - Email address.

What’s Next?

- You will receive an email notice when your FAFSA has been processed and your FAFSA Submission Summary is available for review. Be sure to log into your account to verify all of your information is set.
- Be sure to respond to any questions or requests for more information by the deadline indicated or you could lose your eligibility for financial aid.

Important Reminders
